

LISTEN AND DRAW EXAMPLE

Student A: Read the following instructions to your partner. Speak as clearly as you can, but not slowly. Don't repeat the assignment even if your partner is asking you to.

1: Go to start:

2: Go 1 square right:

3: Go 3 squares down:

4: Go 2 squares left:

5: Go one square up:

6: Go 3 squares right

7: Go 2 squares up:

8: Go 3 squares left:

9: Go 1 square down:

10: Go 1 square right

11: Go 2 squares down

12: Go 2 squares right:

13: Go 2 squares up:

14: Go 1 square left:

15: Go 1 square down:

16: Go 1 square left:

Write the number of girls in the classroom

Draw a bunch of grapes

Write the name of the place where you buy fruit and vegetables

Write down the month when (most) people celebrate Christmas

Draw 2 carrots

Write down the name of the place where you take a shower

Write the name of the thing you use to open a lock

Draw 3 potatoes

Write the name of the machine that keeps things cold

Draw scissors and a comb

Draw an orange and 3 bananas

Draw a toothbrush and toothpaste

Draw two cherries

Write down the name of the liquid you use to wash your hair with

Draw an onion

Write down the name of your partner

Student B: Do what your partner tells you to do. Write or draw according to his or her instructions. These instructions won't be repeated so listen carefully

	START		